

FINE ARTS COMMITTEE

The Fine Arts Committee is happy to bring forth its annual report for the academic year 2012-2013. The Committee thanks Fr. J. M. Das, Principal, and the management for their guidance and support. And we also thank the teaching and non-teaching staff for their kind support to complete our activities in a successful manner.

Aims of Fine Arts Committee:

The Fine Arts Committee absolutely aims at facilitating the Extra-Curricular activities of the students through;

- Helping the students to grow in a holistic manner.
- Laying a platform to the students to bring out their talents.
- Stimulating the students to grow in a positive competitive way.
- Making them to be Creative and Innovative.
- Creating opportunity and thirst for the students to learn and grow promptly.

Events of the Year:

❖ 13 July 2012:

Farewell to Miss. Katherina, volunteer from Germany. She served in Loyola College, Vettavalam, from 5th September 2011 to 13th July 2012. She taught spoken English to our students, she helped neighbourhood children, she worked with the out-reach programme. She was rightly honoured by the Management, the Staff and the Students for her selfless service.

❖ 30 July 2012:

Feast of St. Ignatius and Fresher's Welcome function was conducted Fr.J.M.Das, Principal presided over the programme Fr.P.Arockiaraj SJ, the chief guest delivered a beautiful message.

❖ 15 August 2012:

65th Independence Day was celebrated. Mrs. Latha Dhachana Moorthy, Union Chairman, the chief guest, hoisted the flag.

❖ 5 September 2012:

Teacher's day celebration. The Management and the students came together and honoured the Staff.

❖ 22 December 2

Christmas celebration took place in our college auditorium. The chief guest Fr.A.Octavius, parish priest of Immaculate Heart of Mary Church, Vettavalam, gave a special message.

❖ 26 December 2012:

Our students went to Marudhar Kesari Jain College for an intercollegiate meet. This meet gave an opportunity to bring out the talents of our students.

❖ 11 January 2013:

Loyo Fest was celebrated. This is one of the important events in the college. It was celebrated for two days. Interdepartmental competitions were arranged for the students to bring forth their talents. The chief guest Fr. Vincent Britto, Rector, St.Xavier's College, Palayamkottai, elaborated on the significance of the Vettavalam region in the folk art traditions of Tamil Nadu. He encouraged the students to surpass their ancestors with their performances.

❖ 12 January 2013:

The final day of Loyo Fest cum Pongal celebration. In the morning there was pongal celebration in the presence of the chief guest Thamira, Director of Rettai Suzhi. He distributed prizes and certificates to the meritorious students. The Department of English won the overall championship for the third time.

❖ 26 January 2013:

Republic day celebration. Mr. Gabriel Maria Samy, Captain, Indian Army hoisted the flag.

❖ 8 March 2013:

Women's day celebration. Dr.Amutha, Professor, Department of English, Auxilium College Vellore, was the chief guest. She enthused the audience with stories of various successful women in our own times.

Conclusion:

Fare well, Feast of St. Ignatius, Fresher's Welcome Function and Christmas, opened the door for the students to be so creative and innovative. Independence Day, Teacher's Day, Republic Day and Women's Day helped the student in holistic formation. Loyo Fest and participating in competitions conducted by other colleges stimulated the students to grow in a positive competitive manner. The students took live part in all the programmes that were conducted by Fine Arts committee.

To conclude, the Fine Arts Committee is ready to take up any sort of tasks for the advancement of the students. And it also thanks Fr. J. M. Das, Principal, and the Management for giving us the right opportunity to grow further.