

Report for NET/SET Coaching classes (2017-2018)

NET/SET preparatory classes were organized by Loyola College, Vettavalam during the academic year 2017-2018. The classes were organized for the PG students of English. 15 students participated.

A separate syllabus was framed and the classes were taken by staff of English department. The class was meant for 30 hours and the classes were taken after class hours. The classes began on 02.02.2018 and ended on 28.03.2018. The staff were able to cover the syllabus on time.

Course Outcome:

At the end of the class students were able to

1. Understand the ages of literature
2. Get basic ideas on NET/SET questions
3. Able to understand critical questions that would appear for the exam.

Report for NET/SET Coaching classes (2017-2018)

NET/SET preparatory classes were organized by Loyola College, Vettavalam during the academic year 2017-2018. The classes were organized for the PG students of Department of Mathematics. 14 students from department of Mathematics took part.

A separate syllabus was framed and the classes were taken by staff of Mathematics department. The class was meant for 30 hours and the classes were taken after class hours. The classes began on 02.02.2018 and ended on 28.03.2018. The staff were able to cover the syllabus on time.

Course Outcome:

At the end of the class students were able to

1. Discuss their queries and get a live solution and support from tutors.
2. Smarter practice by self preparation on paper-1
3. Students can explore more versatile areas of mathematics in paper-II
4. Students who are interested in statistics can concentrate more on statistics related questions

Loyola College, Vettavalam

JESUIT WORLD WIDE LEARNING

2017 - 2018

About the course

Global English Learning, abbreviated GEL is a n online learning model under the banner of JWJ designed to provide higher education accessible to the deserving marginalized students.

JWL Authorities in LCV

JWL in LCV

JWL program was officially started at our Loyola campus on October 10, 2017. This unique program was started to provide not only basic survival skills for college life, but enriching experiences to shape their future as well.

The course is being organized and led smoothly by Rev .Dr. Fr. .Rajarathinam,SJ , the Site Coordinator preceded by Rev.Dr.Fr. Alphonse Manickam, SJ, the then Secretary.

Functioning of the course in LCV

20 students were admitted for a batch for A1 Level after conducting a preliminary screening test. The batch comprises of both UG and PG students. The classes were scheduled from 3.15 pm to 4.45 pm on week days.

Prof.Deepa Prem is the facilitator.

Level of proficiency of the students

The first batch undertook the A1 Level online test on 30th Jan 2018. They were tested on the four skills.The questions were set and mailed by Susanne Albewhite from the headquarters of JWLGeneva. Currently, the same batch is doing their A2 Level which will be over by the first week of April 2018, enhances their learning proficiency.

Methodology of learning

In the initial days, students were provided with MP3 players to listen to the exercises. Later the learning system was upgraded with tablets .This facility

Visit of JWLG officials to LCV

On 5th Jan 2018 , Rev.Dr.Fr. Francis .P. Xavier,SJ ,the Vice – President of JWLG and Dr.Selvanayagam ,the Coordinator of JWLG,Asia Region visited the site and had an interaction with the JWLG students.

Creighton Course

Our facilitator, Prof. Deepa Prem is enrolled with the Creighton University certificate course meant for the teachers and the facilitators.

