Loyo Fest Report with Photographs and Date, Caption
2019-2020

Loyofest (Interdepartmental Cultural Competitions) was organized this year around the theme Thirukkural integrating the direction by Thiruvalluvar University in view of World Thirukkural Conference planned to be held in February 2020. Our College is the first one to implement this instruction of the University. Mr. Nassar, Actor and Director of Tamil feature film and Mr. BavaChelladurai, popular Short-story writer, were the chief-guests for the inaugural and valedictory functions respectively. The students exhibited amazingly their extraordinary talents around various themes of Thirukkural. With this experience they participated in all 20 events proposed by the University and have been selected in 13 events at the District Level to compete in the competitions to be held at the University level to be held from 20th January 2020.
